REGULAR MEETING CITY GOVERNMENT.

Petitions From Many People Received and Acted Upon.

Ordinance Passed Both Boards Authorizing the Sale of Four Horses.

The regular meeting of the city government was held on Thursday evening, both branches being in session.

IN BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN.

The full board was present, except Ald. Bates, with Mayor Page in the chair.

The records of the previous meeting were read and stood approved.

Judge Samuel W. Emery appeared as counsel for Rev. Henry E. Hovey. Miss Call and Hows Call, protesting against the bowling alley in the rear of the New Marlboro hotel, and asked that a hearing be held to revoke the license of the same. On motion of Ald. Hoyt the date of the hearing was set for Thursday evening, May 11th, the date of the next meeting.

Petition of John H. Yeaton for the extension of the Richards avenue sewer some sixty feet, so as he can enter the same from his residence, was referred to the committee on sewers, with power.

Petition of Joseph Philbrick and others for the extension of the sewer on Thornton street some hundred feet was referred to the same committee.

Petition of Mary Plummer for permission to enter the Congress street sewer, which would mean a short extension of this sewer, was referred to the committee on sewers, to report.

Petition of Isaac Wetherall and others for the extension of the sewer on Madison street to the property of Mr. Wetherall was referred to the same committee, to report.

Petition of the Portsmouth Brewing company for permission to enter the sewer on Chapel street was granted, under the usual restrictions.

Petition of Edward Raitt and others for an extension of the South street sewer on to Sagamore road some 800 feet was referred to the committee on sewers, to report at the next meeting.

Petition of Walter T. Brooks for permission to erect a fence between his property and the Point of Graves cemetery, the city to stand an equal expense in the same, was referred to the committee on city lands and buildings, to report.

A communication from the Mercantile Library association, stated that at the last meeting of that association Messrs. Charles A. Hazlett and William A. Hodgdon were elected as trustees. The communication was accepted and placed on file.

A petition from Joseph W. Kellar, general manager of the New England Telephone and Telegraph company, asking permission to put all their wires around Market square, Congress and Daniel streets under ground, with all necessary conduits, manholes and poles pertaining to the same, was referred to the committee on streets, to report at the next meeting of the board.

A communication was read from Susan Parker Spaulding, asking that the legacy left by her uncle, the late James Brackett Parrott, to beautify the South pond, be used at once in laying out and planting some shade trees, and also that the road now crossing the pond, called Jenkins avenue, be changed to Parrott avenue. Ald. Hoyt stated that this was something that needed some thought before action was taken and moved it be laid on the table until the next meeting. Ald. Borthwick moved to amend by appointing the committee on streets to consider the matter and report. The motion as amended passed.

The city auditor's report of approved bills to the amount of $1247.89 was read and on motion of Ald. Coubig was accepted and the same ordered paid.

Ald. Parsons called the board's attention to the necessity of the renumbering of Austin street and on motion of Ald. Hoyt it was referred to the committee on streets, with power.

The bond of John W. Shannon, superintendent of the city farm, was read, but as it was not properly sealed it was referred back to Mr. Shannon for correction. On motion of Ald. Hoyt it was voted to accept the same when properly sealed.

Ald. Parsons offered a joint resolution authorizing the city to sell three of the horses at the city stables, was read and on motion of Ald. Borthwick passed its first reading. The same alderman moved that the rules be so far suspended as to allow of the passage of the bill at once. Ald. Coubig started quite a discussion on selling the horses by claiming he was not in favor of it and that the street department had plenty of work for the three animals. Mayor Page stated that there was another horse at the city farm that ought to be included in the sale, as the animal was lame and unfit for work. Street Commissioner Scruton was called upon and said that it would be a great saving to the city if three of the horses were sold, as there was not work enough to keep them going. Ald. Borthwick's motion to suspend the rules prevailed and the bill passed, reading four horses instead of three. It was then sent to the council for concurrence.

Mayor Page then read an ordinance, drawn up the city solicitor in the shape of a joint resolution, authorizing the city to sell that strip of land on Columbia street to straighten the street, which was discussed at the late meeting of the board. On motion of Ald. Hoyt the rules were suspended and the resolution passed its several readings.

Ald. Kirvan, for the committee on police, reported that the committee had voted to turn the new patrol wagon over to the police commissioners, with full power. The report and recommendation was accepted on motion of Ald. Coubig.

Ald. Coubig, for the committee on claims, reported favorably on paying the bill of James Scollay of $7.50 for hens killed by dogs. The report was accepted on motion of Ald. Parsons.

In regard to the bill of $10 of John Stover, for cleaning the snow off the roof of the Whipple school building, the committee recommended that he be paid $6.40 as a fair price and their recommendation was accepted by the board.

Ald. Parsons, for the committee on streets, and they had come to no conclusion in regard to the grade trouble in front of the residence of Joseph R. Holmes on Sagamore road, but he himself recommended that the street railway company be requested to lower their tracks five inches, which would be acceptable to Mr. Holmes. On motion of Ald. Hoyt the city clerk was authorized to order the officials to lower the grade as recommended by Ald. Parsons.

Ald. Kirvan said there was also trouble with the electric road grade in front of Nathan McKenney's residence on Bartlett street. The matter was referred to the committee on streets.

City Solicitor Emery made a report on the claim of Mrs. Ham in regards to the sewer crossing her property on Union street. He said he had looked the matter up and it would be the cheapest way out of it for the city to purchase the land, which could be bought for $650. On motion of Ald. Hoyt the matter was referred back to the city solicitor for him to get the lowest possible price the lot could be purchased for.

No further business coming up the board adjourned for two weeks.

IN COMMON COUNCIL.

Only ten members of the council were in their places when the meeting was called to order.

In the absence of President Garrett, Councilman Bewley was appointed chairman pro tem.

Present: Councilmen Nelson, Wood, Pettigrew, Cotton, Brewster, Cogan, Herriek, Hampshire and Littlefield.

The necessary two-thirds not being present no action could be taken on the annual appropriation bill.

The joint resolution sent in by the aldermen in regards to disposing of four of the city's horses passed its several readings and was sent back to the mayor.

Adjourned for one week.

A REFRESHING STYLE.

The art of quotation requires delicacy in practice. An already famous firm has originated and developed into very promising advertising a mass of old, quaint proverbs. We refer to Messrs. C. L. Hood & Co., of Saragatilla fame, who are using not only our columns, but those of thousands of our contemporaries, in adapting wise saws to their service by clever and practicable turns. It is refreshing to see something new and bright in this line. Clean cut argument is better than big display type.

GREENLAND

GREENLAND, April 28.

Last but not least the writer wishes to mention John Hatch, our popular left fielder of the Greenland team. Mr. Hatch is an old Harvard student and he assures me that he does not play ball for notoriety but for the love of the sport and we shall be obliged to believe him and so will every one who ever chances to see him handle the ball. Mr. Hatch understands every rudiment of the game, knowing the book of rules from cover to cover. We are in hopes that we shall have his presence during every game in which the team plays this summer. We notice that every game that Hatch plays that his playing is generally error less.

The Greenland base ball team noticed that a team calling themselves the Merimacs wanted a series of games with some other teams and hereby challenge to a series, two games on the Portsmouth Plains and one at Greenland.

Mr. S. S. Brackett has received and has teams hauling a car load of flour from the Eastern depot to his mill.

C. L. Howe's florist team of Dover was in town yesterday.

Mr. Babb, salesman for Henry Calendar and Co., of Boston, was in town yesterday.

William Berry of Portsmouth was in town yesterday.

The rumor of yesterday morning concerning the birth of a young babe to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ackery, the writer was pleased to ascertain was true and it is a little girl. Congratulations, Mr. Ackery.

The roads in this town are in fine condition and bicyclists are making the most of them.

The chief topic of the town yesterday was the talk of Musical Association's concert held Wednesday evening.

The writer yesterday visited the last resting place of Mr. Gouverneur Kent who was brought here for burial from Winthrop, Mass., on Monday last and thinks that the floral tributes placed upon the grave was the best that was ever seen in Greenland cemetery. None of the grave could be seen, it being entirely covered with flowers. Among some of the bouquets the writer noticed a large one from the Masous and also the "Knight Templars," of which orders the deceased was a member.

Quite a gay and happy throng of the Methodist society met at the home of Mrs. E. M. Mann last evening to receive and welcome to their midst their new pastor, Rev. A. E. Draper. We sincerely hope that during the period of our worthy pastor's sojourn with us that every hour which he stays will be as happily spent as those few of last evening. Mr. Chas. H. Brackett and Geo. W. Lord officiated as ushers. During the evening ice cream and cake was served.

Hon. J. S. H. Frank is in Boston today on business.

Mr. Belknap Weeks who has been living in Portsmouth during the winter moved back to town yesterday.

HOYT'S "A TEXAS STEER."

Almost every theatre goer throughout the length and breadth of the land is acquainted with the mirth provoking qualities of this famous satire on American politics, from the pen of Chas. Hoyt. Maverick Brander, is a cattle king who owns eighty thousand head of steers and a daughter called "Bossy" who is dearer to him than the whole drove. The family lives in a four room cottage, and the old man's simple costume is supplemented by a whiskey bottle and an enormous revolver. Major Yell, one of the wildest and wooliest Texans in the state, is a local politician who proposes to run old Brander for Congress, but Brander runs away and threatens to shoot if he is elected. The campaign is a success and Brander is compelled to accept at the muzzle of all the shooting irons in the town. A young captain of the regular army has become engaged to Bossy, while stationed in her vicinity, but when the family arrives in Washington and Bossy awells out in barbarous splendor, with half a neck of jewels on her person, Captain Bright is horrified. He finds it impossible to reason with her, or tone down her extravagance, and at the same time mother Brander is making herself a fright, and the old man appears like a monkey in ill fitting garments, intended to be civilized. Bossy discovers that her lover is ashamed of her appearance, and breaks the engagement, sending him from the house, and she and her mother put in some hard study on a book of etiquette. Old Brander gets on amazingly in the role of a Congressman, and avoids fatal shooting scrapes, while he is initiated into the ways of state craft by Brassy Gall, an accomplished and utterly unprincipled lobbyist.

The Steer will be at Music hall this evening.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hart, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled in my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior; determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at the Globe Grocery Co.'s store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

THE ACME QUEEN is one of the most popular and copyrighted costumes ever made. From the extravagant and almost from a caricature of the forms of the 18th century, it has been made from solid, comfortable, and handsome material. It is made in many styles, and may be made in any of the following sizes: 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, 50, 52, 54, 56, 58, 60, 62, 64, 66, 68, 70, 72, 74, 76, 78, 80, 82, 84, 86, 88, 90, 92, 94, 96, 98, 100, 102, 104, 106, 108, 110, 112, 114, 116, 118, 120, 122, 124, 126, 128, 130, 132, 134, 136, 138, 140, 142, 144, 146, 148, 150, 152, 154, 156, 158, 160, 162, 164, 166, 168, 170, 172, 174, 176, 178, 180, 182, 184, 186, 188, 190, 192, 194, 196, 198, 200, 202, 204, 206, 208, 210, 212, 214, 216, 218, 220, 222, 224, 226, 228, 230, 232, 234, 236, 238, 240, 242, 244, 246, 248, 250, 252, 254, 256, 258, 260, 262, 264, 266, 268, 270, 272, 274, 276, 278, 280, 282, 284, 286, 288, 290, 292, 294, 296, 298, 300, 302, 304, 306, 308, 310, 312, 314, 316, 318, 320, 322, 324, 326, 328, 330, 332, 334, 336, 338, 340, 342, 344, 346, 348, 350, 352, 354, 356, 358, 360, 362, 364, 366, 368, 370, 372, 374, 376, 378, 380, 382, 384, 386, 388, 390, 392, 394, 396, 398, 400, 402, 404, 406, 408, 410, 412, 414, 416, 418, 420, 422, 424, 426, 428, 430, 432, 434, 436, 438, 440, 442, 444, 446, 448, 450, 452, 454, 456, 458, 460, 462, 464, 466, 468, 470, 472, 474, 476, 478, 480, 482, 484, 486, 488, 490, 492, 494, 496, 498, 500, 502, 504, 506, 508, 510, 512, 514, 516, 518, 520, 522, 524, 526, 528, 530, 532, 534, 536, 538, 540, 542, 544, 546, 548, 550, 552, 554, 556, 558, 560, 562, 564, 566, 568, 570, 572, 574, 576, 578, 580, 582, 584, 586, 588, 590, 592, 594, 596, 598, 600, 602, 604, 606, 608, 610, 612, 614, 616, 618, 620, 622, 624, 626, 628, 630, 632, 634, 636, 638, 640, 642, 644, 646, 648, 650, 652, 654, 656, 658, 660, 662, 664, 666, 668, 670, 672, 674, 676, 678, 680, 682, 684, 686, 688, 690, 692, 694, 696, 698, 700, 702, 704, 706, 708, 710, 712, 714, 716, 718, 720, 722, 724, 726, 728, 730, 732, 734, 736, 738, 740, 742, 744, 746, 748, 750, 752, 754, 756, 758, 760, 762, 764, 766, 768, 770, 772, 774, 776, 778, 780, 782, 784, 786, 788, 790, 792, 794, 796, 798, 800, 802, 804, 806, 808, 810, 812, 814, 816, 818, 820, 822, 824, 826, 828, 830, 832, 834, 836, 838, 840, 842, 844, 846, 848, 850, 852, 854, 856, 858, 860, 862, 864, 866, 868, 870, 872, 874, 876, 878, 880, 882, 884, 886, 888, 890, 892, 894, 896, 898, 900, 902, 904, 906, 908, 910, 912, 914, 916, 918, 920, 922, 924, 926, 928, 930, 932, 934, 936, 938, 940, 942, 944, 946, 948, 950, 952, 954, 956, 958, 960, 962, 964, 966, 968, 970, 972, 974, 976, 978, 980, 982, 984, 986, 988, 990, 992, 994, 996, 998, 1000, 1002, 1004, 1006, 1008, 1010, 1012, 1014, 1016, 1018, 1020, 1022, 1024, 1026, 1028, 1030, 1032, 1034, 1036, 1038, 1040, 1042, 1044, 1046, 1048, 1050, 1052, 1054, 1056, 1058, 1060, 1062, 1064, 1066, 1068, 1070, 1072, 1074, 1076, 1078, 1080, 1082, 1084, 1086, 1088, 1090, 1092, 1094, 1096, 1098, 1100, 1102, 1104, 1106, 1108, 1110, 1112, 1114, 1116, 1118, 1120, 1122, 1124, 1126, 1128, 1130, 1132, 1134, 1136, 1138, 1140, 1142, 1144, 1146, 1148, 1150, 1152, 1154, 1156, 1158, 1160, 1162, 1164, 1166, 1168, 1170, 1172, 1174, 1176, 1178, 1180, 1182, 1184, 1186, 1188, 1190, 1192, 1194, 1196, 1198, 1200, 1202, 1204, 1206, 1208, 1210, 1212, 1214, 1216, 1218, 1220, 1222, 1224, 1226, 1228, 1230, 1232, 1234, 1236, 1238, 1240, 1242, 1244, 1246, 1248, 1250, 1252, 1254, 1256, 1258, 1260, 1262, 1264, 1266, 1268, 1270, 1272, 1274, 1276, 1278, 1280, 1282, 1284, 1286, 1288, 1290, 1292, 1294, 1296, 1298, 1300, 1302, 1304, 1306, 1308, 1310, 1312, 1314, 1316, 1318, 1320, 1322, 1324, 1326, 1328, 1330, 1332, 1334, 1336, 1338, 1340, 1342, 1344, 1346, 1348, 1350, 1352, 1354, 1356, 1358, 1360, 1362, 1364, 1366, 1368, 1370, 1372, 1374, 1376, 1378, 1380, 1382, 1384, 1386, 1388, 1390, 1392, 1394, 1396, 1398, 1400, 1402, 1404, 1406, 1408, 1410, 1412, 1414, 1416, 1418, 1420, 1422, 1424, 1426, 1428, 1430, 1432, 1434, 1436, 1438, 1440, 1442, 1444, 1446, 1448, 1450, 1452, 1454, 1456, 1458, 1460, 1462, 1464, 1466, 1468, 1470, 1472, 1474, 1476, 1478, 1480, 1482, 1484, 1486, 1488, 1490, 1492, 1494, 1496, 1498, 1500, 1502, 1504, 1506, 1508, 1510, 1512, 1514, 1516, 1518, 1520, 1522, 1524, 1526, 1528, 1530

Why Jim, big-hearted and big-bodied Jim, with a nature as sweet and forgiving as any woman's, had drawn me to him from the very day of his entering the room.

That was it! and now—well, neither had spoken of it, and neither could say as yet that he had any basis for his hopes; but the inevitable shadow of rivalry was there, all the same. And when Jim asked that, as if dreading to hear the answer, the situation merged into tragedy at one bound. The mad

Come in—over and we will talk it all over."

I must have walked aimlessly down the road to the town for a time, hearing and seeing nothing; and then my heart gave a great jump. Coming slowly toward me was the daintiest

ON THE VERGE OF COLLAPSE.

Filipino Revolt Is Nearing Its Certain End.

ARMY PRACTICALLY DISBANDED.

Force Will Be Landed at Dagupan to Catch the Southern Rebels.

New York, April 27.—A copyrighted special to the Journal says: The revolt of the Filipinos against the authority of the United States appears to be on the eve of collapse.

Aguinaldo, according to a report of the Filipino commission here, is now conferring with his cabinet concerning peace overtures. The next advance of the American troops will bring about the absolute surrender of the rebel forces.

A feeling of hopelessness is spreading throughout the insurgent army, and many of Aguinaldo's and Luna's officers are returning to work in Manila.

On the other hand, Mabini and Luna are seeking in every way to prolong hostilities. They insist that the resistance shall continue, and attempt to cheer their ranks with highly-colored tales of American disaster.

The common people, however, are strongly in favor of peace. They protest against Luna's order that all towns abandoned to Americans shall be burned. Hundreds have been rendered homeless through the execution of this order, and the feeling against Luna is intense.

Jose Martinez, an escaped Spanish captain, who had been compelled during his captivity, to act as servant to an insurgent colonel, says that the rebel army is practically disbanded, and that the Filipino republic is a thing of the past.

The fighting is being continued, however, by isolated bands of rebels. In the face of increasing desertions from their ranks, the Indian fighting tactics of General Lawton have demoralized and crushed the hopes of the insurgents.

So great has become the fear among the rebels that they seek their under-charged cartridges in water, as an excuse to go to the rear for fresh ammunition.

Once at the rear they lose no time in deserting. The American soldiers have, as corroboration of this, found large piles of unexploded cartridges.

Preparations have been made to land an army at Dagupan, in order to catch the scattered remnants of Aguinaldo's forces between two armies, one at the north, the other at the south. This will be the last big military operation before the rainy season sets in.

General Lawton's brigade now occupies an advantageous position at Norragaray, and is at a point where the rebels can be cut off from escape when they are driven northeast by the main body of the American army. Thus the rebels will be caught between two forces and annihilated, if surrender is not forthcoming.

RANGER NEARLY READY.

Will Be Fitted Out to Join Fleet of Admiral Dewey at Manila.

San Francisco, April 27.—The U. S. S. Ranger has just had her dock trial at Mare Island, and will soon be ready to go into commission; a new ship to all intents and purposes.

She will be sent to Manila as soon as ready. On account of her light draft she will be a valuable addition to Admiral Dewey's fleet.

The Ranger is an iron vessel, and was built in 1873-74 at Wilmington, Del. She is 175 feet long, 32 feet beam, 12 feet 9 inches draft, and displaces 1020 tons. She made 10 knots with her old engines, which will probably be exceeded largely with her new ones. She carries six 4-inch rapid fire, four 6-pounders, a field gun and a machine gun, has a coal capacity of 145 tons, and has 21 officers and 127 men when commissioned.

GIFT TO SEA FIGHTERS.

New York, April 27.—A gift of $50,000 was made yesterday to the United States men-of-war. The donor made two conditions. One is that other friends of the men give $100,000 to go with the donation, and the other is that his own name be not made public. The gift was made through the army and navy department of the Young Men's Christian association.

It is intended, first, for the erection of the Brooklyn navy yard, and second, for the extension of the work of providing similar shore homes in Boston, Norfolk, Key West, Galveston and San Francisco.

SULTANA SURVIVORS.

Cleveland, O., April 27.—Nearly 100 survivors of the Sultana disaster gathered in annual convention today, the 35th anniversary of the event. The session today was largely devoted to addresses and reports of officers. On April 27, 1864, the Sultana, a Mississippi river boat, loaded with soldiers, was working her way up the river when an explosion occurred and hundreds of lives were lost.

SEVERE FIGHTING.

Auckland, N. Z., April 27.—Advice just received here from Apia, Samoa islands, dated April 18, report that severe fighting has taken place between large bodies of friendly natives and the rebels. The casualties, it was thought, would not exceed 20, and no Europeans were among the injured.

CHOATE AND SALISBURY CONFERENCE.

London, April 27.—United States Ambassador Choate visited the foreign office yesterday afternoon and discussed the Samoan situation with Lord Salisbury.

AMERICA CONGRATULATED.

London Mail Says Time Has Come for Aguinaldo to Stop Resistance.

London, April 27.—The Daily Mail this morning says, in reference to the American victory in the Philippines:

The Americans are to be congratulated warmly upon the victory which they have won at Caltumit. Now, at last, it looks as though the back of the Filipino resistance had been broken, and Englishmen will be particularly glad of this fact, as they alone appreciate to the full the difficulties with which their cousins have had to contend.

The victory is all the more welcome and all the more grateful to us because we have been watching with deep interest the efforts of a political party in the United States to humiliate the nation and the government by persuading them to a disgraceful and cowardly retreat.

This party is insignificant in strength and influence, but what it lacks in this direction it makes up for by its lung power. It has gone to the length of endeavoring to induce American volunteers to demand their recall in the face of the enemy. To the eternal credit of these volunteers, be it said that few have acted upon this treacherous and unpatriotic instigation.

The American people may well be proud of their soldiers. By the very nature of things, volunteers enlisted for a short war with a civilized enemy are not the troops best fitted for work at a great distance from their country, or for a long, protracted and harassing struggle with an uncivilized foe in a tropical climate. But the valor and determination of volunteers and regulars has been such that they have not once been worsted in battle.

If Aguinaldo has a head on his shoulders, he will see that the time has come for him to submit to the inevitable.

JUNTA OF GENERALS.

General Gomez Organizes an Advisory Board of Cuban Fighters.

New York, April 27.—A special cable to The Sun from Havana says:

General Gomez has issued a proclamation announcing the formation of a junta of Cuban generals to advise him. He says that he will consult the junta on all the details regarding the disbandment of the Cuban army, and also concerning the question of retaining the arms, with which the Cubans fought for liberty as sacred testimonials of the struggle for independence and for the defense of the noble interests, which have not been abandoned because the army is to be disbanded.

He adds that these interests now demand the help of all Cubans, and that they should seek to achieve their highest aspiration, which is the establishment of an independent democratic republic.

The junta of Cuban generals met yesterday and agreed to send commissioners to all the provinces to hasten the disbandment of the army.

Senor Capote, secretary of state and the interior, has proposed to General Brooke that a decree be issued prohibiting bull fights and increasing the fine for the sale of lottery tickets to $100.

GOES TO PRISON.

Mrs. Minnie Anderson Convicted of Murder of Her Husband.

New Haven, April 27.—Ten years in state prison is the penalty Mrs. Minnie Anderson, colored, of Ansonia, must pay for killing her husband by administering a dose of poison last October.

At 2 o'clock this morning the jury, which had been out since 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon, reported that they had found a verdict of guilty. State Attorney Williams asked that the maximum penalty for manslaughter be imposed, this is 10 years. Judge Elmer imposed the penalty recommended.

Mrs. Anderson is the first woman to be tried for or convicted of manslaughter in Connecticut in 20 years. She is only about 22 years old. Jealousy was shown to be the motive for putting her husband out of the way.

IMMENSE COPPER LEDGES.

San Francisco, April 27.—A special from Tacoma says: It is reported that the largest copper ledges ever discovered in the west have been found in the Carbon district, north of Mount Ranier, and 60 miles east of this city. The ore is said to be similar in character and geological situation to that found in Montana, and to be fully as rich as that of the Butte mines. It is stated that a large force of men will engage in the work of development as soon as the snow disappears. D. O. Mills of New York and Alvinzar Edward of San Francisco are here on a tour of inspection. Before returning home they will inspect the recent discovery in the Mount Baker region. The Bellingham Bay and British Columbia railway will be extended to the new mines.

TAKEN TO PORTLAND.

Rockland, Me., April 27.—Secret Service Officer Redfern, Deputy United States Marshal Norton, county attorney Johnson and City Marshal Crockett left this morning for Portland, having in custody Sidney T. Thompson of South Thomaston, who was arrested yesterday, charged with altering government notes and issuing them to defraud. Thompson will be arraigned before Judge Webb in the United States circuit court at Portland.

INQUEST POSTPONED.

Ashland, Mass., April 27.—The inquest on the death of Mr. Daniel G. Tremblay will be postponed for one week. Professor Wood of the Harvard medical school, to whom was sent portions of the remains for expert examination, writes the medical examiner in charge of the case that there can be no doubt but that Dr. Tremblay died of arsenical poisoning.

TO BE DEPENDENT UPON.

Because It Is the Experience of a
Portsmouth Citizen and Can Easily
Be Investigated.

Suppose you were an utter stranger in a large city and had completely lost your way, whose guidance could you place the most confidence in—the stranger's lost like yourself, or a resident's born and bred in the city? When a ship reaches the office of a strange port, whose hand directs the tiller and brings her safe to her moorings? A trusty pilot's or a greenhorn's? Whose opinions, experience and statements, can the reader depend upon the more, those published from a bona fide Portsmouth citizen or those originally drafted in every hole and corner of the Union, except your own Portsmouth and its suburbs? Read this Portsmouth case.

Mr. Thomas Kottwistle, city marshal, says:—"I was never troubled very much with my kidneys, but I had a very sharp attack of lameness of the back and pain across the loins. At the time I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Philbrick's pharmacy I was suffering much distress. It hurt me to make any sudden movement and sharp twinges seized me in the small of the back when rising from a chair. I took but a few doses when I found they were helping me and before I had finished the whole box I was quite free from pain. I have had no trouble since. I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for aching and lameness in the back. I consider them an honest medicine and possess all the merits claimed for them."

QUIET AT SAMOA.

Admiral Kautz Says He Is No Aggressive
Man, but Protecting Our Rights.

Washington, April 27.—The navy department received the following cablegram from Admiral Kautz: "It bears the date of Apia, April 13, and Auckland, April 27."

Secretary Navy, Washington: The receipt of telegrams of March 21 and April 2 is acknowledged. Cal cannot be obtained at Apia; must be ordered from Auckland.

Everything is quiet at Apia. I am not aggressive on Matafua rebels, but I am protesting the United States consulate, the United States property, and the Samoan government, as established by the decision of the chief justice of the supreme court.

"In accordance with the request of Admiral Kautz to furnish coal, it being impossible to obtain any at Apia, the navy department has informed him that the auxiliary cruiser Badger, which sailed from San Francisco yesterday for Samoa, with the American, British and German commissioners on board, has on board 1000 tons of coal. The coiler Ahrenda, which is to sail from Norfolk in a few days for the same destination, carries about 2400 tons, and it is believed at the navy department that when both of these vessels arrive, Admiral Kautz will have a sufficient supply of coal for the present at least."

NO LABORERS.

Chicago, April 27.—Chin Ling Foo, the Chinese contractor, and his troupe were discharged yesterday from the custody of the United States authorities by United States District Judge Kohlsaat. The Chinaman came to this country under the provisions of a special act of congress admitting laborers, and others, for the purpose of participating in the construction and operation of exhibits at the Panama exposition, and providing that they should leave at the close of the exposition. Because he did not return to China, Chin Ling Foo was arrested while under engagement with the Hopkins troupe of theaters. An application for writ of habeas corpus followed. Judge Kohlsaat holds that the alien law does not apply to performers in the same sense as to laborers. The troupe will be permitted to remain in this country as long as it chooses.

WILL SUSTAIN ADMINISTRATION.

Washington, April 27.—The Wade court of inquiry continued the preparation of its report yesterday, and when adjournment was had, comparatively little work on it remained to be done. About 200 witnesses were examined during the investigation. The testimony alone covers 6000 pages of typewritten matter. The report, therefore, will be of considerable length. There has been no recent change in the conclusion of the members of the court. The report will unanimously sustain the administration.

NEED NO ALLIANCE.

Postmaster General Smith Says
We Can Stand Alone.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS DISCUSSED.

United States Is Fighting in the Philippines in Effort to Secure Peace.

Chicago, April 27.—Charles Emory Smith, postmaster general, was at the Auditorium annex last night. Today he is the orator at the Grant birthday memorial exercises at Galena. A special train this morning conveyed Mr. Smith and prominent Chicagoans to Galena.

Chatting in his apartments on national affairs, Mr. Smith said: "This nation does not need an alliance, political, commercial or military, with any foreign power that exists. I believe that the American people feel this; feel that we are able to stand alone and cope with any problem that confronts us. I believe in that."

"In one of the last things that Grant wrote before his death, he says that during all time England and this country should be natural allies and friends, and then he refers to England's colonial policy, and dwells at length upon its superb colonial system."

"At that time we possessed no colonies, so it looks as if he almost divined what the future would bring forth for us."

The postmaster general then discussed events and questions which have grown out of the Spanish-American war, and the policy of the administration in colonial matters. Regarding Cuba he said: "We will maintain a form of government there until the people of that island can give to the world a stable, permanent, strong government of their own."

"As to the Filipinos, the United States is fighting them now to secure peace. That is the only object of the present campaign. As to what will be done with them afterward, the American people will settle that question themselves. They will decide what shall be done with the islands, and the executive and legislative branches of the government will follow the behests of the people."

"Are we going to aid England in China?" Not that I know of. The United States has trade interests there, and these will be protected, but beyond that I don't expect that we will have any extraordinary interest in China's trouble."

"Speaking of the colonies, I might say that we have colonies now—Porto Rico and Hawaii, and others which some of us believe have come to us to stay for all time. True, we did not seek them; they were forced upon us by events. But they are here, and it might seem that a definite colonial policy has to be expected in the future. The American people will have to settle these themselves, and will, unquestionably, when the proper time comes for the settlement to be made."

"The United States has taken a certain position before the whole world, and is big enough and strong enough to maintain it of its own free will. How long that position shall be maintained the people themselves will decide, and I have not the slightest doubt that they will decide it in the right way."

"I have great confidence in the judgment of the people, the future of the nation, the certainty that for all time to come the government, as representing the people, will hold an advanced position among nations on all questions which affect the happiness, welfare and peace of men."

"We are respected in every part of the world today, and I think the quantity of that respect will greatly increase in the next few years."

"I cannot say when the Filipinos will sue for peace, but as that is all this government is fighting for thereat this time, it ought to be pretty soon, and will be hailed with delight by everybody. What will come after that, as I state, Washington cannot say. The popular will must decide."

Mr. Smith will not make a long stay in the west. He will return directly to Washington after the Galena celebration.

PUBLISHED IN PRISON.

New York, April 27.—The first copy of the Star of Hope, a newspaper edited and printed by Sing Sing prison, was issued yesterday. It is a typographical beauty, eight pages, three columns to a page. No names are attached to articles, only the cell numbers. The editor is designated as "No. 1500." He is a trained newspaper man. First comes an article written by Warden Sage, telling of the inception of the paper. Then comes the salutory of "No. 150," in which he says the aim of the paper is to furnish the inmates with a summary of the news of the world, and stimulate interest among the men toward higher and nobler mental training.

BOUND FOR PHILADELPHIA.

Washington, April 27.—President McKinley and party left at 9.30 a. m. today for Philadelphia to attend the ceremonies incident to the unveiling of the Grant monument. In the party, besides the president, were Mrs. McKinley, Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Gage, Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Long, Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock, Attorney General Griggs, Captain Sutoris, Dr. Rixey, the president's physician, Mr. George B. Cortelyou, assistant secretary to the president; Mr. F. Orster, stenographer, and the necessary servants. Mr. S. S. Saxton, a nephew of the president, joined the party at the last moment to accompany it to Pennsylvania.

A SHORTAGE OF $10,000.

St. Louis, April 27.—Captain Henry Leake, general manager of the Eagle Book Store company, says that the examination thus far of the books of the missing secretary, Roland Quentin, shows discrepancies and apparent shortages aggregating $10,000.

AGONCILLO COMING BACK.

Aguinaldo's Representative Will Try to Arrange for Terms of Peace.

Washington, April 27.—A friend of Agoncillo in this city has received a message from the insurgent representative, in which he says that he expects to leave Paris soon for the United States. He says he will see the authorities here, and try to make arrangements to stop the war in the Philippines.

Agoncillo claims he has been assured that he can come to this country with impunity. He has been informed, he says, that no efforts will be made to interfere with his movements.

He says this country is already tired of the war, that it has become convinced that, while the rebels may be unable to drive the Americans from the islands, they will give them a great deal of trouble, and keep up a guerilla warfare for years and years. For this reason, he has been told, some arrangement can easily be made for a satisfactory settlement.

Agoncillo will ask first that the United States promise to grant full pardon to all who have taken part in the rebellion. He will insist on local self-government, under the direction of Aguinaldo, with an American protectorate for some years to come, and the promise by the president of complete independence within a certain number of years. In the meantime, the United States military force is to be reduced to a moderate number, and the military government is to be superseded by a civil government, with Aguinaldo as resident-governor general, and an American army officer temporarily in command.

Agoncillo, who says that Aguinaldo will agree to whatever he proposes, promises, if this is done, when the independence of the Philippines is recognized a coaling station will be given the Americans in any part of the island they ask it, and every advantage possible will be given them in regard to trade.

All this comes under the head of curious information. If Agoncillo should come with such propositions he would not expect to have them accepted. Amnesty and local self-government, the Philippine commission, to which the negotiations were committed, has already offered in vain to Aguinaldo. They can be had at any time for the taking, and the prolongation of the rebellion is in spite of these. But independence is not for the president to promise.

Adjutant General Corbin says that so far as he knows the president has no intention whatever of calling for the 35,000 volunteers provided for by the late army reorganization bill. He says that the situation in the Philippines does not demand the presence of a much larger force, and that after the troops which are under orders to reinforce General Otis at Manila arrive there, the president has no intention of calling for the 35,000 volunteers provided for by the late army reorganization bill. He says that the situation in the Philippines does not demand the presence of a much larger force, and that after the troops which are under orders to reinforce General Otis at Manila arrive there, the president has no intention of calling for the 35,000 volunteers provided for by the late army reorganization bill.

If, on the other hand, General Otis should send an imperative request to the secretary of war to furnish more troops, setting forth that it will be impossible to succeed without them, steps will be taken immediately by the administration to comply with his wishes, and if the exigencies seem to render it necessary, an army of 100,000 men will be placed at his disposal.

This last measure, however, seems highly improbable, as officials believe, from the most recent advice received from Manila, that the rebel strength is rapidly waning.

RECRUITS IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 27.—The war department expects Chicago to supply 6000 recruits before Jan. 1, 1900, for service in Cuba and Manila. About 50 men a day are examining at the recruiting station, 82 West Madison street, and additional stations will be opened soon.

JOINT COMMISSION SAILS.

STRIKE SPREADING

Granite Workers on Cape Ann
Seek Shorter Hours.

PIGEON COVE MEN LAST TO QUIT.

Movement Promises to Be General All Over
Cape Ann—Men Are Confident.

Gloucester, Mass., April 27.—Rockport Granite company received a severe blow this morning when the men employed at its Pigeon Cove works refused to go to work. This makes the strike general all over Cape Ann at the works of the Rockport Granite company, which are now shut down on all sides.

The strike among the quarriesmen had for the past eight weeks been confined to the works of the company at Bay View. The company has another large plant located at Rockport. At Rockport, or that part of it known as Pigeon Cove, the quarriesmen were apathetic and had not joined in the strike, although it is well known that they sympathized with the strikers.

The importation of Italians under the padrone system by the company to take the place of the strikers at Bay View, and the laboring men on Cape Ann. They seem to see in this a club which will be used in the future to beat down the regular laboring men. It was the straw that broke the camels back.

Conservative as were the men at the works at Pigeon Cove, they determined to protest against this. The action has not been hasty. Several meetings were held in Pigeon Cove; the result being that the entire force of quarriesmen to the number of 200 refused to go to work today, unless a 9-hour day was granted in all the works of the company. The company had confidently counted on their conservative men at Pigeon Cove to stick by them in their fight for 10 hours. Now this reliance is taken from them.

None but a few bosses are at work at Pigeon Cove works today. Large numbers of the workmen are clustered about the company's shore at Pigeon Cove, on the stone bridge, looking down to the great cave in the earth which has been hewed out by generations of laboring men.

The strike promises to become general all over Cape Ann. At the works of the Pigeon Hill company—also on a 10-hour schedule—there are mutterings among the men. It is thought that their joining in the strike is but a matter of a short time. At the Cape Ann Granite company's works, under Colonel Jones, H. French, the 9-hour system has been in vogue since the colonel opened his new works at Pigeon Cove to complete his breakwater. Work is going on at his works steadily.

The Rockport company is face to face with a serious situation. All its quarriesmen, engineers, blacksmiths, drillers, etc., are on strike, to the number of 700, are out on a strike, which they are determined to fight for a fight.

A capital of nearly $700,000 is thus entirely idle. Furthermore, the company is being hit in an unexpected manner. The officials of the Rockport Granite company received an unexpected call last evening, from Dr. Brindisi, Italian consul at Boston. He was accompanied by the Vice Consul, Mr. Brindisi.

He first visited the Italians at their shanty on the works, and held an interview with the padrone. He then saw the Rockport Granite company officials. He asked them whether it is true, as has been stated, that they intended to use his countrymen as a club to break the strike, and after this was successfully accomplished, to discharge them and take back the strikers.

The company's answer was evidently not satisfactory for an agreement was made on the part of the officials to meet Consul Brindisi in Boston today and discuss the situation and arrange terms as to their future status as laborers with the company.

The 9-hour bill was started at Pigeon Cove by Gustaf Johnson, who employs about 35 men. Although they work by piece, the men demanded 9 hours. As they are mostly Finns, the other nationalities employed in other quarries in the vicinity were not prepared to let these recent acquisitions to the population stand in the way for the advancement of the laboring men. Their example was infectious, hence the determination of the Pigeon Cove men to come out today.

The news of the action of the quarriesmen at Pigeon Cove was received with the greatest joy by the strikers at Bay View, who now regard their victory as assured.

Dr. Brindisi was also in consultation with Mayor French yesterday afternoon. It may be that the Italians may leave the works, as popular indignation is at such a pitch that without police protection the Italians are in danger. The attempt of the Rockport company to employ in constables at Bay View and Laneville to protect its works was not a success, as it is reported that the men are in favor of the strikers and refuse to assist the company.

ANOTHER STRIKE.

Providence, April 27.—Just as the striking weavers in the Pawtucket valley cotton mills decide to give up their fight for a greater increase in the price of weaving than their employers see fit to concede them, and the most serious labor fight in the history of the Pawtucket valley is about to come to an end, trouble has developed among the woolen weavers. The 41 weavers employed at the mill of the Kent Woolen company at Centerville struck yesterday for a restoration of the prices paid prior to the cutdown in 1894. The Kent Woolen company's mill is situated at Centerville. Fancy cashmeres are made and a product is sold through a New York house.

ON THE VERGE OF COLLAPSE.

Filipino Revolt Is Nearing Its Certain End.

ARMY PRACTICALLY DISBANDED.

Force Will Be Landed at Dagupan to Catch the Scattered Remains.

New York, April 27.—A copyrighted special to the Journal says: The revolt of the Filipinos against the authority of the United States appears to be on the eve of collapse.

Aguinaldo, according to a report of the Philippine commission here, is now conferring with his cabinet concerning peace overtures. The next advance of the American troops will bring about the absolute surrender of the rebel forces.

A feeling of hopelessness is spreading throughout the insurgent army, and many of Aguinaldo's and Luna's officers are returning to work in Manila.

On the other hand, Mabini and Luna are seeking in every way to prolong hostilities. They insist that the resistance shall continue, and attempt to cheer their men with highly-colored tales of American disaster.

The common people, however, are strongly in favor of peace. They protest against Luna's order that all towns abandoned to Americans shall be burned. Hundreds have been rendered homeless through the execution of this order, and the feeling against Luna is intense.

Jose Martinez, an escaped Spanish captain, who had been compelled, during his captivity, to act as servant to an insurgent colonel, says that the rebel army is practically disbanded, and that the Filipino republic is a thing of the past.

The fighting is being continued, however, by isolated bands of rebels. In the face of increasing desertions from their ranks, the Indian fighting tactics of General Lawton have demoralized and crushed the hopes of the insurgents.

So great has become the fear among the rebels that they seek their undischarged cartridges in water, as an excuse to go to the rear for fresh ammunition.

Once at the rear they lose no time in deserting. The American soldiers have, as corroboration of this, found large piles of unexploded cartridges.

Preparations have been made to land an army at Dagupan, in order to catch the scattered remains of Aguinaldo's forces between two armies, one at the north, the other at the south. This will be the last big military operation before the rainy season sets in.

General Lawton's brigade now occupies an advantageous position at Norzagaray, and is at a point where the rebels can be cut off from escape when they are driven northward by the main body of the American army. Thus the rebels will be caught between two forces and annihilated, if surrender is not forthcoming.

RANGER NEARLY READY.

Will Be Fitted Out to Join Fleet of Admiral Dewey at Manila.

San Francisco, April 27.—The U. S. S. Ranger has just had her dock trial at Mare Island, and will soon be ready to go into commission; a new ship to all intents and purposes.

She will be sent to Manila as soon as ready. On account of her light draft she will be a valuable addition to Admiral Dewey's fleet.

The Ranger is an iron vessel, and was built in 1875-76 at Wilmington, Del. She is 175 feet long, 32 feet beam, 12 feet 9 inches draft, and displaces 1029 tons. She made 10 knots with her old engines, which will probably be exceeded largely with her new ones. She carries six 4-inch rapid fire, four 6-pounders, a field gun and a machine gun, has a coal capacity of 145 tons, and has 21 officers and 127 men when commissioned.

GIFT TO SEA FIGHTERS.

New York, April 27.—A gift of $50,000 was made yesterday to the United States seamen's warrent. The donor made two conditions. One is that other friends of the men give $100,000 to go with the donation, and the other is that his own name be not made public. The gift was made through the army and navy department of the Young Men's Christian association.

It is intended, first, for the erection near the Brooklyn navy yard of a shore home for sailors and marines in the United States service, and, second, for the extension of the work of providing similar shore homes in Boston, Norfolk, Key West, Galveston and San Francisco.

SULTANA SURVIVORS.

Cleveland, O., April 27.—Nearly 100 survivors of the Sultana disaster gathered in annual convention today, the 55th anniversary of the event. The session today was largely devoted to addresses and reports of officers. On April 27, 1858, the Sultana, a Mississippi river boat, loaded with soldiers, was working her way up the river when an explosion occurred and hundreds of lives were lost.

SEVERE FIGHTING.

Auckland, N. Z., April 27.—Advice just received here from Apia, Samoa islands, dated April 18, report that severe fighting has taken place between large bodies of friendly natives and the rebels. The casualties, it was thought, would not exceed 20, and no Europeans were among the injured.

CHOATE AND SALISBURY CONFERENCE.

London, April 27.—United States Ambassador Choate visited the foreign office yesterday afternoon and discussed the Samoan situation with Lord Salisbury.

AMERICA CONGRATULATED.

London Mail Says Time Has Come for Aguinaldo to Stop Resistance.

London, April 27.—The Daily Mail this morning says, in reference to the American victory in the Philippines:

The Americans are to be congratulated warmly upon the victory which they have won at Calumpit. Now, at last, it looks as though the back of the Filipino resistance had been broken, and Englishmen will be particularly glad of this fact, as they alone appreciate to the full the difficulties with which their cousins have had to contend.

The victory is all the more welcome and all the more grateful to us because we have been watching with deep interest the efforts of a political party in the United States to humiliate the nation and the government by persuading them to a disgraceful and cowardly retreat.

This party is insignificant in strength and influence, but what it lacks in this direction it makes up for by its lung power. It has gone to the length of endeavoring to induce American volunteers to demand their recall in the face of the enemy. To the eternal credit of these volunteers, be it said that few have acted upon this treacherous and unpatriotic suggestion.

The American people may well be proud of their soldiers. By the very nature of things, volunteers enlisted for a short war with a civilized enemy are not the troops best fitted for work at a great distance from their country, or for a tedious, protracted and harassing struggle with an uncivilized foe in a tropical climate. But the valor and determination of volunteers and regulars has been such that they have not once been worsted in battle.

If Aguinaldo has a head on his shoulders, he will see that the time has come for him to submit to the inevitable.

JUNTA OF GENERALS.

General Gomez Organizes an Advisory Board of Cuban Fighters.

New York, April 27.—A special cable to The Sun from Havana says:

General Gomez has issued a proclamation announcing the formation of a junta of Cuban generals to advise him. He says that he will consult the junta on all the details regarding the disbandment of the Cuban army, and also concerning the question of retaining the army with which the Cubans fought for liberty as sacred testimonials of the struggle for independence and for the defense of the noble interests, which have not been abandoned because the army is to disband.

He adds that these interests now demand the help of all Cubans, and that they should seek to achieve their highest aspiration, which is the establishment of an independent democratic republic.

The junta of Cuban generals met yesterday and agreed to send commissioners to all the provinces to hasten the disbandment of the army.

Senor Capote, secretary of state and the interior, has proposed to General Brooke that a decree be issued prohibiting bull fights and increasing the fine for the sale of lottery tickets to $100.

GOES TO PRISON.

Mrs. Minnie Anderson Convicted of Murder of Her Husband.

New Haven, April 27.—Ten years in state prison is the penalty Mrs. Minnie Anderson, colored, of Ansonia, must pay for killing her husband by administering a dose of poison last October.

At 2 o'clock this morning the jury, which had been out since 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon, reported that they had found a verdict of guilty. State Attorney Williams asked that the maximum penalty for manslaughter be imposed. According to Connecticut statutes, this is 10 years. Judge Elmer imposed the penalty recommended.

Mrs. Anderson is the first woman to be tried for or convicted of manslaughter in Connecticut in 60 years. She is only about 22 years old. Jealousy was shown to be the motive for putting her husband out of the way.

IMMENSE COPPER LEDGES.

San Francisco, April 27.—A special from Tacoma says: It is reported that the largest copper ledge ever discovered in the west have been found in the Carbon district, north of Mount Ranier, and 60 miles east of this city. The ore is said to be similar in character and geological situation to that found in Montana, and to be fully as rich as that of the Butte mines. It is stated that a large force of men will engage in the work of development as soon as the snow disappears. D. O. Mills of New York and Alvinar Edward of San Francisco are here on a tour of inspection. Before returning home they will inspect the recent coal discoveries in the Mount Baker region. The Bellingham Bay and British Columbia railway will be extended to the new mines.

TAKEN TO PORTLAND.

Rockland, Me., April 27.—Secret Service Officer Redfern, Deputy United States Marshal Norton, county attorney Johnson and City Marshal Crockett left this morning for Portland, having in custody Sidney T. Thompson of South Thomaston, who was arrested yesterday, charged with altering government notes and issuing them to defraud. Thompson will be arraigned before Judge Webb in the United States circuit court at Portland.

INQUEST POSTPONED.

Ashland, Mass., April 27.—The inquest on the death of Mr. Daniel G. Tremblay has been postponed for one week. Professor Wood of the Harvard medical school, to whom was sent portions of the remains for expert examination, writes the medical examiner in charge of the case that there can be no doubt but that Dr. Tremblay died of arsenical poisoning.

NAVAL CHANGES.

Washington, April 27.—Rear Admiral Howell, who has been relieved as senior member of the naval retiring board, will be succeeded by Admiral Schuyler Capelan Cook, formerly commander of the Brooklyn, has been ordered to duty as a member of the navy examining board. Commander W. W. Meade has been ordered to the command of the Brooklyn.

TO BE DEFENDED UPON.

Because It is the Experience of a Portsmouth Citizen and Can Easily Be Investigated.

Suppose you were an utter stranger in a large city and had completely lost your way, whose guidance could you place the most confidence in—the stranger's lost like yourself, or a resident's born and bred in the city? When a ship reaches the office of a strange port, whose hand directs the tiller and brings her safe to her moorings? A trusty pilot's or a greenhorn's? Whose opinion, experience and statements can the reader depend upon the more, those published from bona fide Portsmouth citizens or those originally drafted in every hole and corner of the Union, except your own Portsmouth and its suburbs? Read this Portsmouth case.

Mr. Thomas Entwistle, city marshal, says: "I was never troubled very much with my kidneys, but I had a very sharp attack of lameness of the back and pain across the loins. At the time I got Doan's Kidney Pills at Philbrick's pharmacy I was suffering much distress. It hurt me to make any sudden movement and sharp twinges seized me in the small of the back when rising from a chair. I took but a few doses when I found they were helping me and before I had finished the whole box I was quite free from pain. I have had no trouble since. I can highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills for aching and lameness in the back. I consider them an honest medicine and pose a sign all the merits claimed for them."

QUIET AT SAMOA.

Admiral Kautz Says He Is No Aggressor, but Protecting Our Rights.

Washington, April 27.—The navy department received the following cablegram from Admiral Kautz, at Apia, Samoa, dated April 13, and Auckland, April 27:

Secretary Navy, Washington:

The receipt of telegrams of March 27 and April 2 is acknowledged. Cjal cannot be obtained at Apia; must be ordered from Auckland.

Everything is quiet at Apia. I am not aggressive on Mataafa rebels, but I am protesting the United States consulate, the United States property, and the Samoan government, as established by the decision of the chief justice of the supreme court.

In accordance with the request of Admiral Kautz to furnish coal, it being impossible to obtain any at Apia, the navy department has informed him that the auxiliary cruiser Badger, which sailed from San Francisco yesterday for Samoa, with the American, British and German commissioners on board, has on board 1000 tons of coal. The coiller Ahoroa, which is sailing from Norfolk in a few days for the same destination, carries about 2400 tons, and it is believed at the navy department that when both of these vessels arrive, Admiral Kautz will have a sufficient supply of coal for the present, at least.

NO LABORERS.

Chicago, April 27.—Chin Ling Foo, the Chinese confeder, and his troupe were discharged yesterday from the custody of the United States authorities by United States District Judge Kohlsaat. The Chinaman came to this country under the provisions of a special act of congress admitting laborers, and others, for the purpose of participating in the construction and operation of exhibits at the Omaha exposition, and providing that they should leave at the close of the exposition. Because he did not return to China, Chin Ling Foo was arrested while under engagement with the Hopewell circus of theaters. An application for writ of habeas corpus followed. Judge Kohlsaat holds that the alien labor law does not apply to performers in the same sense as to laborers. The troupe will be permitted to remain in this country as long as it chooses.

WILL SUSTAIN ADMINISTRATION.

Washington, April 27.—The Wade court of inquiry continued the preparation of its report yesterday, and when adjournment was had, comparatively little work on it remained to be done. About 200 witnesses were examined during the investigation. The testimony alone covers 5000 pages of typewritten matter. The report, therefore, will be of considerable length. There has been no recent change in the conclusion of the members of the court. The report will unanimously sustain the administration.

NEED NO ALLIANCE.

Postmaster General Smith Says We Can Stand Alone.

NATIONAL AFFAIRS DISCUSSED.

United States Is Fighting in the Philippines in Effort to Secure Peace.

Chicago, April 27.—Charles Emory Smith, postmaster general, was at the Auditorium annex last night. Today he is the orator at the Grant birthday memorial exercises at Galena. A special train this morning conveyed Mr. Smith and prominent Chicagoans to Galena.

Chatting in his apartments on national affairs, Mr. Smith said: "This nation does not need an alliance, political, commercial or military, with any foreign power that exists. I believe that the American people feel this; feel that we are able to stand alone and cope with any problem that confronts us. I believe in that."

"In one of almost the last things that Grant wrote before his death, he says that during all time England and this country should be natural allies and friends, and then he refers to England's colonial policy, and dwells at length upon its superb colonial system."

"At that time we possessed no colonies, so it looks as if he almost divined what the future would bring forth for us."

The postmaster general then discussed events and questions which have grown out of the Spanish-American war, and the policy of the administration in colonial matters. Regarding Cuba he said: "We will maintain a form of government there until the people of that island can give to the world a stable, permanent, strong government of their own."

"As to the Filipinos, the United States is fighting them now to secure peace. That is the only object of the present campaign. As to what will be done with them afterward, the American people will settle that question themselves. They will decide what shall be done with the islands, and the executive and legislative branches of the government will follow the behests of the people."

"Are we going to aid England in China?" Not that I know of. The United States has trade interests there, and these will be protected, but beyond that I don't expect that we will have any extraordinary interest in China's troubles."

"Speaking of the colonies, I might say that we have colonies now—Porto Rico and Hawaii, and others which some of us believe have come to us to stay for all time. True, we did not seek them; they were forced upon us by events. But they are here, and it might seem that a definite colonial policy has to be expected in the future. The American people will have to settle these themselves, and will, unquestionably, when the proper time comes for the settlement to be made."

"The United States has taken a certain position before the whole world, and is big enough and strong enough to maintain it of its own free will. How long that position shall be maintained, the people themselves will decide, and I do not the slightest doubt that they will decide it in the right way."

"I have great confidence in the judgment of the people; the future of the nation, the certainty that, for all time to come the government, as representing the people, will hold an advanced position among nations on all questions which affect the happiness, welfare and peace of men."

"We are respected in every part of the world today, and I think the quantity of that respect will greatly increase in the next few years."

"I cannot say when the Filipinos will sue for peace, but as that is all this government is fighting for at this time, it ought to be pretty soon, and will be hailed with delight by everybody. What will come after that, as I state, Washington cannot say. The popular will must decide."

Mr. Smith will not make a long stay in the west. He will return directly to Washington after the Galena celebration.

PUBLISHED IN PRISON.

New York, April 27.—The first copy of the Star of Hope, a newspaper edited and printed by the convicts in Sing Sing prison, was issued yesterday. It is a typographical beauty, eight pages, three columns to a page. No names are attached to articles, only the cell number. The editor is designated as "No. 1500." He is a printer newspaper man. First comes an article written by Warden Sage, telling of the inception of the paper. Then comes the salutary of "No. 150," in which he says the aim of the paper is to furnish the inmates with a summary of the news world, and to stimulate interest among the men toward higher and nobler mental training.

BOUND FOR PHILADELPHIA.

Washington, April 27.—President McKinley and party left at 9.30 a. m. today for Philadelphia to attend the ceremonies incident to the unveiling of the Grant monument. In the party, besides the president, were Mrs. McKinley, Secretary of the Treasury and Mrs. Gage, Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Long, Secretary of the Interior, Hittchcock, Attorney General Griggs, Captain Satoris, Dr. Rixey, the president's physician, Mr. George B. Cortelyou, assistant secretary to the president; Mr. F. Orator, stenographer, and the necessary servants. Mr. S. S. Saxton, a nephew of the president, joined the party at the last moment to accompany it to Pennsylvania.

A SHORTAGE OF $10,000.

St. Louis, April 27.—Captain Henry Layhe, general manager of the Eagle Book Store company, says that the examination thus far of the books of the missing secretary, Roland Quentlin, shows discrepancies and apparent shortages aggregating $10,000.

AGONCILLO COMING BACK.

Aguinaldo's Representative Will Try to Arrange for Terms of Peace.

Washington, April 27.—A friend of Agoncillo in this city has received a message from the insurgent representative, in which he says that he expects to leave Paris soon for the United States. He says he will see the authorities here, and try to make arrangements to stop the war in the Philippines.

Agoncillo claims he has been assured that he can come to this country with impunity. He has been informed, he says, that no efforts will be made to interfere with his movements.

He says this country is already tired of the war, that it has become convinced that, while the rebels may be unable to drive the Americans from the islands, they will give them a great deal of trouble, and keep up a guerrilla warfare for years and years. For this reason, he has been told, some arrangement can easily be made for a satisfactory settlement.

Agoncillo will ask first that the United States promise to grant full pardon to all who have taken part in the rebellion. He will insist on local self-government, under the direction of Agoncillo, with an American protectorate for some years to come, and the promise by the president of complete independence within a certain number of years. In the meantime the United States military force is to be reduced to a moderate number, and the military government is to be superseded by a civil government, with Agoncillo as resident governor general, and an American army officer temporarily in command.

Agoncillo, who says that Agoncillo will agree to whatever he proposes, promises, if this is done, when the independence of the Philippines is recognized, a coaling station will be given the Americans in any part of the island they ask it, and every advantage possible will be given them in regard to trade.

All this comes under the head of curious information. If Agoncillo should come with such propositions he would not expect to have them accepted. Amnesty and local self-government, the Philippine commission, to which the negotiations were committed, has already offered in vain to Agoncillo. They can be had at any time for the taking, and the prolongation of the rebellion is in spite of them. But independence is not for the president to promise.

Adjutant General Corbin says that so far as he knows the president has no intention whatever of calling for the 35,000 volunteers provided for by the late army reorganization bill. He says that the situation in the Philippines does not demand the presence of a much larger force, and that after the troops which are under orders to reinforce General Otis at Manila arrive there, he will, in the opinion of the president, have sufficient force to cope with the situation.

If, on the other hand, General Otis should send an imperative request to the secretary of war to furnish more troops, setting forth that it will be impossible to succeed without them, steps will be taken immediately by the administration to comply with his wishes, and the exigencies seem to render it necessary, an army of 100,000 men will be placed at his disposal.

This last measure, however, is highly improbable, as officials believe, from the most recent advices received from Manila, that the rebel strength is rapidly waning.

RECRUITS IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, April 27.—The war department expects Chicago to supply 5000 recruits before Jan. 1, 1900, for service in Cuba and Manila. About 50 men a day are examined at the recruiting station, 32 West Madison street, and additional stations will be opened soon.

JOINT COMMISSION SAILS.

San Francisco, April 27.—The United States dispatch boat Badger, with the Samoan commission on board, sailed yesterday for Apia. The steamer will probably stop at Honolulu for coal.

STRIKE SPREADING

Granite Workers on Cape Ann Seek Shorter Hours.

PIGEON COVE MEN LAST TO QUIT.

Movement Promises to Be General All Over Cape Ann—Men Are Confident

Gloucester, Mass., April 27.—Rockport Granite company received a severe blow this morning when the men employed at its Pigeon Cove works refused to go to work. This makes the strike general all over Cape Ann at the works of the Rockport Granite company, which are now shut down on all sides.

The strike among the quartermen had for the past eight weeks been confined to the works of the company at Bay View. The company has another large plant located at Rockport. At Rockport, the quartermen were sympathetic and had not joined in the strike, although it is well known that they sympathized with the strikers.

The importation of Italians under the padrone system by the company to take the place of the strikers at Bay View angered all the laboring men on Cape Ann. They seem to see in this a cheap way to break the camels back.

Conservative as were the men at the works at Pigeon Cove, they determined to protest against this. The action was not hasty. Several meetings were held in Pigeon Cove, the result being that the entire force of quartermen to the number of 200 refused to go to work today unless a 9-hour day was granted in all the works of the company. The company had confidently counted on their conservative men at Pigeon Cove to stick by them in their fight for 10 hours. Now this reliance is taken from them.

None but a few bosses are at work at Pigeon Cove works today. Large numbers of the workmen are clustered about the company's office at Pigeon Cove, on the stone bridge, looking down to the great cave in the earth which has been hewed out by generations of laboring men.

The strike promises to become general all over Cape Ann. At the works of the Pigeon Hill company, also on a 10-hour schedule—there are mutterings among the men. It is thought that they are joining in the strike but a matter of a short time. At the Cape Ann Granite company's works, under Colonel Jonas H. French, the 9-hour system has been in vogue since the colonel opened his new works at Pigeon Cove to complete his breakwater. Work is going on at his works steadily.

The Rockport company is face to face with a serious situation. All its quartermen, engineers, blacksmiths, drill sharpeners and stonecutters, to the number of 700, are out on a strike, which they are determined to fight to the finish.

A capital of nearly $700,000 is thus entirely idle. Furthermore, the company is being hit in an unexpected manner. The officials of the Rockport Granite company received an unexpected call last evening from Dr. Brindisi, Italian consul at Boston. He was accompanied to Bay View by Marshal Karchner.

He first visited the Italians at their shanty on the works, and held an interview with the padrone. He then saw the Rockport Granite company officials. He asked them whether it is true, as has been stated, that they intended to use his countrymen as a club to break the strike, and after this was successfully accomplished, to discharge them and take back the strikers.

The company's answer was evidently not satisfactory, for an agreement was made on the part of the officials to meet Consul Brindisi in Boston today and discuss the situation and arrange terms as to their future status as laborers with the company.

The 9-hour bill was started at Pigeon Cove by Gustaf Johnson, who employs about 35 men. Although they work by piece, the men demanded 9 hours. As they are mostly Finns, the other nationalities employed in other quarries in the vicinity were not prepared to let these recent acquisitions to the position stand in the van for the advancement of the laboring man. Their example was infectious, hence the determination of the Pigeon Cove men to come out today.

The news of the action of the quartermen at Pigeon Cove was received with the greatest joy by the strikers at Bay View, who now regard their victory as assured.

Dr. Brindisi was also in consultation with Mayor French yesterday afternoon. It may be that the Italians may leave the works, as popular indignation is at such a pitch that without police protection the Italians are in danger. The attempt of the Rockport company to arrest in constables at Bay View and Laneville to protect its works was not a success, as it is reported that the men are in favor of the strikers and refuse to assist the company.

ANOTHER STRIKE.

Providence, April 27.—Just as the striking weavers in the Pawtuxet valley cotton-mills decide to give up the fight for a greater increase in the price of weaving than their employers see fit to concede them, and the most serious labor fight in the history of the Pawtuxet valley is about to come to an end, trouble has developed among the woolen weavers. The 41 weavers employed at the mill of the Kent Woolen company and Centerville struck yesterday, for a restoration of the prices paid prior to the shutdown in 1898. The Kent-Woolen company's mill is situated at Centerville. Fancy cashmeres are made, and a product is sold through a New York house.

The American troops also captured a quantity of arms and ammunition. The fighting lasted from noon until four o'clock. The American loss was one man of the Montana regiment killed, and three officers and six men wounded.

HAPPY THOUGHTS.

To please, attract and give people something to talk about, is an art in writing a prosaic advertisement. Hood's Sarsaparilla fame, is the originator in an extensive sense of the idea of using oververbs and wise saws as a prefix to a pleasant introduction of the well known uses of America's Greatest Medicine. These quaint quotations often fit the uses of the day with startling directness and the moral is easily drawn, natural good to Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Indiana Moral Reform Methods Adopted by the People of Wales.

They have very strange and vigorous methods of enforcing the laws of morality in the parish of Llanbister, which is situated in the hills of the purely agricultural county of Radnorshire, South Wales.

Scandalized at a breach of the laws of morality, which they believed to have been committed, the parishioners a few nights ago formed what is known in Wales as a "Rebecca" gang, and, attired in a variety of costumes, and, with faces sooty black, serenaded the alleged delinquent's house. The woman who was suspected was also fetched. Both, in a nearly nude condition, were marched to the River Cwrdwr, which flows close by. In its waters they were submerged, and then made to walk backward and forward through the stream for the space of nearly twenty minutes. While in the stream the man made a desperate attempt to escape, but in crossing a weir he came a cropper, and was recaptured. The two were then made to run up and down the fields, and were well belabored with straps and sticks.

Then they were escorted back in procession to the man's house, where the "Rebecca" sat in judgment. The couple were condemned to undergo further flogging and to march up and down the fields hand in hand. Their hair was cut off, and, besides, they had to undergo many other indignities. Tar and feathers were procured, but the more cautious prevailed on their companions not to administer such a dreadful punishment.

This extraordinary affair appears to have given the greatest satisfaction to the inhabitants, who feel that a great blot on the rustic innocence of their parish has been avenged.

Ceylon's Singing Shells.

A remarkable phenomenon connected with the Batticaloa lake is that of the singing shells, which on a quiet night it is most pleasant to hear. Arrangements were made the other night for his excellency the governor to hear the novelty, and after dinner Sir West Ridgeway was taken on the lake. The night was a lovely one, and very still, and the singing of the shells was heard to advantage.

IN MEMORIAM.

William O. Sides was born in Exeter, New Hampshire, January 17th, 1821, son of Nathaniel B. and Elizabeth (York) Sides. He is of English descent on the paternal side, his grandfather having come to this country from Great Britain. On the maternal side the family has been American for many generations. His parents removed from Exeter to Kittery in his infancy, whence a few years later they came to Portsmouth, where he acquired his early education in the common schools. He commenced active life as a mill-spinner in a cotton mill, at which occupation he was employed for several years, and then entered into business for himself as a livery stable keeper in Portsmouth. This business he followed successfully for four or five years, until he abandoned it to enter the army. On the breaking out of the civil war, Mr. Sides was the first man to enlist in the state of New Hampshire, and was appointed by the governor as recruiting officer for the city of Portsmouth. In this capacity he enlisted one hundred and five men in five days. Although he had enlisted as a private, he was promptly commissioned as a captain of the company thus raised, which became Company K, Second regiment New Hampshire volunteers. He went to the front in command of his company, and participated in the first battle of Bull Run. On the retreat following that disastrous engagement he met with quite a severe injury, on account of which he soon after resigned his commission. Subsequently he was appointed by the president to a captaincy in the Veteran Reserve corps, and assigned to the command of a company that was sent to Albany, New York, to enforce the draft. From there he was sent to Elmira, New York, and thence to Alexandria, Virginia, where he was detailed in command of the patrol guard. He was in service there for two months, when his condition of health requiring a change, he was relieved from his company at Alexandria and sent to Fortress Monroe, and took charge of five companies where he attended to the unloading from transports and removing to the hospitals some five thousand sick and wounded soldiers, shipping them north when well enough to be removed to their homes. Resigned and reappointed as first lieutenant and transferred to Fort Snelling, Minnesota, where he remained until December, 1865, mustered out, June 30th, 1866. Altogether he was in the service thirty-four months. After a brief period of inactivity and recuperation following his return home, Mr. Sides went to Washington and served for a time as messenger in the house of representatives. While engaged in this capacity he received an appointment as inspector in the Boston custom house, where he served for three years, and was then transferred to a similar position in the Portsmouth (New Hampshire) custom house, in which he continued for twelve years. On the nomination of James G. Blaine for the presidency, Mr. Sides, always a strong republican in politics, in association with another gentleman, started a small daily paper, the Penny Post, in the interest of Mr. Blaine's candidacy. The subsequent defeat of the republican ticket and the accession of the Cleveland regime resulted in the removal of Mr. Sides from his government office, and he at once turned all his attention and energies to his newspaper, which he greatly enlarged and ran successfully throughout the whole term of the Cleveland administration, and the campaign that resulted in the election of Harrison. When President Harrison came into office, Mr. Sides was appointed postmaster of Portsmouth, which position he filled until a change of administration when he was again removed from office by President Cleveland on the ground of "offensive partisanship." Under the McKinley administration he was promptly reappointed to the postmastership, taking office for the second time in September, 1897, and served with signal ability and satisfaction to the general public. Mr. Sides cast his first presidential vote for John P. Hale, the Free-Soil candidate, and has been a consistent and ardent republican from the organization of the party. He has been active and prominent in state and local politics, and has served his city as representative to the general court. He has also served as chairman of the police commission of this city, resigning this office to accept his postmastership reappointment. Mr. Sides is a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows and the Knights of Pythias, in which latter organization he has served as Vice-Grand Chancellor, Grand Chancellor, and Past Grand Chancellor and was a charter member of General Gilman Marston Command, Union Veterans Union. He was married in 1858 to Margaret A. Badger, they have four children: Antoinette C. Annie B. (now Mrs. Garrett), Grace A. and Walter Herman Sides.

THE HERALD.

FRIDAY, APRIL 25, 1892.

THE GYPSY QUEEN.

The second rendition of this charming opera went off with a snap and smoothness that was delightfully refreshing to the large audience that assembled in Music hall on Thursday evening, and the young ladies and gentlemen cast in the various characters, or who sang in the choros, may well feel proud of the laurels won, and of the generous receipts which have rewarded their efforts in behalf of the High school fund. The applause throughout the evening was of the most enthusiastic character and the participants in the pretty skit felt much encouraged thereby and threw all their energy and spirit into their acting and singing. Manager Whittier and all who were associated in the presentation of the opera deserve the thanks of the public for the delightful entertainment furnished our citizens on Wednesday and Thursday.

ADMIRAL CERVERA REMEMBERS THE HERALD.

He is Enjoying Best of Health.

A few weeks ago the Herald mailed Admiral Cervera a picture of the Wentworth, Newcastle, which was printed in the Herald, and in acknowledging it he writes among other pleasant references:

F. W. Hartford, Portsmouth, N. H.:

My Dear Sir:—I see that the hotel is very much beautified, it must be splendid for it was very good even before this new enlargement. I thank you for the hotel picture which I take real pleasure in viewing. I am very pleased to send you a photograph, and also wish you to remember me to all friends.

Believe me, yours truly,

PASQUAL CERVERA.

The letter is written in English and is in the admiral's own hand and he sends best wishes to many whom he met here.

RALEIGH WILL COMPLETE HER TOUR ABOUT MAY 15th.

Sir:—Replying to your request of the 18th instant to be informed of the date of the arrival of the Raleigh at Portsmouth, I have to inform you that it cannot yet be fixed with any certainty. If you will bring the matter to the attention of the department about the 10th of May, when the Raleigh's programme of visits, as it now stands, will have been about completed, you will be definite information in reply to your question. Very respectfully,

CHAS. H. ALLEN,
Acting Secretary.

MILL OPERATIVES STRIKE IN DOVER.

Four Hundred and Seventy Weavers Refuse to Continue Work.

Mills May be Compelled to Shut Down and Throw Out of Employment 2000.

(Special to the Herald.)

DOVER, April 25.—Four hundred and seventy-five weavers employed at the Cocheco mills were locked out this morning and the town is full of the wildest kind of excitement. Fully two thousand people were present around the mill gates this morning to see what would happen. When the factory bell ceased ringing and the big gates swung too and were locked, 475 men and women weavers were not in their accustomed places. The cause of the dissatisfaction may be best gleaned from the report of the mass meeting held by the weavers which was sent from here last evening.

The local branch of the New England Textile Operatives' union to the number of about 425 held a large and enthusiastic meeting in Division No. 6, A. O. H., hall this evening for the purpose of taking action on the refusal of Agent Charles H. Fish to comply with certain requests made by them with regard to giving the union weavers steady employment. A committee was appointed by the union a week ago last Wednesday to interview Mr. Fish for this purpose, but he refused to be interviewed and in the meantime several of the leading members of the union were sent out. This somewhat aroused the anger of the organization and it was decided to write Mr. Fish a letter.

The weavers say that they have not requested the discharge of anybody, but simply ask that the Union weavers be given the preference. Several of their leading members, including the president and two of the executive committee, have already been discharged and will not be allowed work by the corporation. This, they say, is an attempt on the part of Agent Fish to break up their organization. The matter was fully discussed and it was finally voted by a large majority to meet at the mill gates at the usual hour tomorrow morning and again submit their request to Mr. Fish. If he refuses to grant them their request, not a loom of the corporation will be started up. The operatives are determined to stand together and say that they will fight to the bitter end.

Should the crisis come, which seems most probable, the mills would be compelled in a few days to shut down and over 2000 operatives would be out of employment. It is sincerely hoped that the difficulty may be adjusted peacefully and a strike averted.

IN OPERATION BY MAY 30

Everything now indicates that the Amesbury branch of the Exeter, Hampton and Amesbury street railway will be in operation by Memorial day. On the line from Salisbury square to the New Hampshire boundary, over 100 men and twenty-seven teams are now employed and the rails are laid to within a quarter of a mile of the terminus. On the line of the Exeter, Hampton and Amesbury railroad from Seabrook to the Shaw line, a large gang of men is employed and the workmen are now at the Baptist church in Seabrook within about a mile of the Salisbury line.

LIQUOR WAS ON IN DOVER

Dover is having sort of a liquor crusade in which the police are taking speaking parts. Heretofore any old time has been good enough to close up with the hotel and saloon keepers but now Marshal Fogarty has set 10 o'clock as the limit. Most of the hotels and some of the saloons were caught the first night and settled in court the next morning.

BASE BALL AT THE PARK

The first ball game of the season will be played at the bicycle park on Saturday afternoon when the High school boys will take the field against the team of Battery M. of Newcastle. The soldier boys are said to have a good team and a close game may be expected. Game called at 2:30.

GRANTED A PENSION.

Lulu B. Randall of This City to Receive $27 a Month.

A pension of $27 a month has been granted Lulu B. Randall, the 16-year-old daughter of Frank B. Randall, chief engineer of Admiral Dewey's dispatch boat McCulloch, who died from the heat the day after Dewey fought the great battle of Manila bay, May 1, 1898.

The McCulloch is a United States revenue cutter in the service of the navy, and was attached to Admiral Dewey's squadron when the war broke out. Her chief engineer, by virtue of serving under the direction of the navy department, had the relative rank of lieutenant of the senior grade.

On the day of the famous battle Chief Engineer Randall was overcome by the heat and died the following day, May 2. It is supposed that death came while the McCulloch was bearing to Hong Kong the news which was to electrify the world.

Capt. A. J. Hoitt, the pension agent for New England, has just received directions to pay the $27 a month pension to the daughter, who lives in this city, the time to be reckoned from May 2, 1898.

In many important particulars, Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself. It is a medicine as far ahead of the usual preparation as the electric light is ahead of the tallow dip. The ingredients used in making it are selected with the very greatest care, and are gathered for us at the greatest remedial value. The peculiar combinat ion, proportion and process used in Hood's Sarsaparilla, are unknown to any other, thus making Hood's Sarsaparilla peculiar to itself.

The value of this peculiarity is best shown by actual results. And Hood's Sarsaparilla has a record of cures unequalled in medical history. Has more of them, greater successes in serious cases, better genuine, unobscured testimonials than any other medicine in existence.

It cures blood diseases, humors, scrofula, salt rheum, rheumatism, catarrh, and all other troubles traceable to impure or vitiated blood. Possessing great stomach-toning qualities, it cures indigestion, dyspepsia, catarrh of the stomach, etc.

It builds up the nerves, renews and revivifies brain, nerve and mental strength and curing nervous prostration. As a natural tonic, it strengthens the whole system and cures that tired feeling.

It has done all this for others and what it does for others it will do for you. All we ask for Hood's Sarsaparilla is a necessity, an opportunity and a fair trial. Be sure to get Hood's. Sold by druggists. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. It never disappoints.
